

JACOBS SCHOOL BLUE NOTES

JANUARY 12, 2023

A Note from the Principal

Several real life superheroes presented themselves in the form of an Upstander this week. Casey DelVecchio, Quincy Koloba, Kobe Dunlap and Logan Coleman each stood up to bullying by using one of the three strategies (Being a Buddy, Speaking Out, or Interrupting, followed by telling an adult). We are very proud of their courage and willingness to positively impact the lives of their classmates.

In addition to the holiday on Monday, there is no school on Tuesday, January 17, due to a district -wide Professional Development day. The focus at the Jacobs will include curriculum mapping and review. The time spent Tuesday will impact our instructional practices in the very near and distant future. It's hard but meaningful work that we are all committed to.

Due to the holiday and Professional Development day, next week's Blues Notes will be abbreviated. Enjoy the long weekend.

~Mr. Shaw

HEART OF THE PIRATE

Speaking of students who make us proud, the January 2023 Heart of the Pirate Award winners were announced at Friday's Spirit Day Assembly:

Kindergarten — Charlie O'Mara

1st Grade — Henry Lidington-Trubia

2nd Grade — Luke Panetta

3rd Grade — Cayleigh Briggs

4th Grade — Ellagrace Souza

5th Grade — Cohen-Michael Boyd

Congratulations and a hearty Yo-Ho to all the winners!

JASPER FUN!

As our first session of JASPER winds to a close, we declare it a great success! There will be a Session 2 after February vacation, but first we need instructors! Please see the attached flyer for more information.
