A Note from the Principal

Next week promises to be an exciting and bustling time at the Jacobs School!

On Monday, students will showcase their talents to each other during our annual Winter Concert Rehearsal. Notably, this year marks a special milestone as the Jacobs band makes its debut in the performance.

Get ready for showtime on Tuesday, when we present our annual Winter Concert! To accommodate the growing number of attendees and the addition of the 6th grade chorus and band, we've added an extra performance. All families are kindly requested to enter and exit the building through the Receiving Doors. Regarding students attending their siblings' shows: Students will have the opportunity to see their siblings perform during the rehearsal concert on Monday. If you still wish to dismiss your child from class to attend their sibling's show, please send in a note with your child to be given to their classroom teacher. Siblings will be allowed to sit in a designated student section for that performance.

And let's not forget Thursday - it's Jacobs Express Day! Students will be amazed when they arrive at school to find it transformed into a ?-themed winter wonderland. The big reveal is on Thursday! A big thank you to Nicole Dunn and the PTO for their hard work and preparations for this exciting day. Students absolutely love it! Please remember, Thursday is an early dismissal day and then we are off for Winter Break.

Wishing you all a happy holiday season.
