A Note from the Principal

As you are aware, Parent-Teacher Conferences are taking place today. Our commitment to these conferences remains unwavering. If you were unable to attend today's conference, I encourage you to reach out to your child's teacher and arrange either an in-person or phone conference in the coming days and weeks.

Last Friday, our school assembly marked the thrilling launch of the Respect Quest, a collective journey toward creating a positive, inclusive atmosphere that radiates through every corner of our school! Our shared goal is to foster respect for people and property through meaningful actions, such as including others, picking up trash on the playground, and using kind words with staff and peers alike. This mission is not just a one-time endeavor, but a commitment to nurturing a culture of respect that will resonate throughout the entire school year. Starting in December with the letter "R", each month we will fill a letter in the word R-E-S-P-E-C-T with a written or photographic record of our words and actions. Our 6th graders are taking center stage as Captains, leading by example and steering the "ship of respect" for our younger students. Captains will meet weekly with students in Grades K-5 to record achievements and guide their peers toward creating an uplifting atmosphere within our school community.

Lastly, our Lost & Found bin is currently overflowing with clothing. To ensure these items find their way back to their owners, please remind your child to take a look in our lost and found bin to check for any belongings they may be missing. Any unclaimed clothing will be donated to Wellspring during the winter break.
