

JACOBS SCHOOL BLUE NOTES

March 24, 2022

A Note from the Principal

Monday, we Rocked Our Socks by wearing colorful and mismatched socks. Students participated in various activities to raise awareness, including listening to stories read by the library volunteers when visiting the library. With the help of two families who have preschoolers with Down syndrome and the PTO, we purchased books for our library that explain what it is like to grow up with Down syndrome. Throughout March, our library volunteers are reading picture books about Down syndrome to classes to increase awareness. Students can check the books out from the library. The Hull Public Schools has a Special Education Parent Advisory Council (SEPAC). This council is a group of parents and educators who work together on behalf of children in Hull with special education needs and provide support for their families. Anyone interested in learning more can follow the group on Facebook or email HULL\_SEPAC@town.hull.ma.us.

The Hull High School Freshman Class is hosting a movie night at the Jacobs on Friday, April 8, from 5-7 PM as a fundraiser for their class. Please see the attached flyer for more information.
