A Note from the Principal

Last night was a great night to be a Pirate! With the constant flow of students and families joining us throughout the evening, the two hours Mrs. Rajan and I stood by the doors seemed to pass by in the blink of an eye. Your enthusiastic turnout at our annual Open House underscores the dedication, commitment, and partnership you demonstrate in your child's education. Our chosen One Word for the year is Committed, and last night's event exemplified that commitment extends well beyond the confines of our school walls. As families, your dedication to your child's education is truly amazing. Thank you!

Next week each bus will be participating in a mandatory bus evacuation drill. This ensures the safety of all our bus riders. In addition to the drill, Mrs. Rajan, Officer Mahoney, and I will review our expectations for behavior on the bus. These expectations will be further discussed during our next school-wide assembly in October.

I am excited to share that our CKLA program officially kicked off this week. We are wholeheartedly committed to its successful implementation and eagerly anticipate watching our students' literacy skills and knowledge flourish as a result. For more information on this program, please take a moment to watch this brief video.

Thank you for your ongoing support and commitment to the Jacobs School. We are Stronger Together!

—Mr. Shaw
