

Jacobs School Blue Notes

For the week of December 9, 2019

A Note from the Principal

It is hard to believe that last week was Thanksgiving. A week ago yesterday, we had our 11th annual Turkey Trot race. All students preschool through grade five began their day by gathering in the gymnasium for our pep rally. This year students sang the song, "This Is Me" by Keala Settle and my favorite, the "National Anthem". Then, fourth and fifth grade students set off on the 1.2-mile race, completing two laps around the school while the rest of the school cheered them on. Since its inception, students participating in the Turkey Trot have donated more than 15,000 canned goods to Wellspring. This year alone, students collected 1,626 canned goods for the drive. Mrs. Kenney's second-grade homeroom won the drive, collecting the most cans and earning a dodgeball game for the class.

This year, the Turkey Trot pep rally featured our first-ever frozen turkey toss. Mrs. Jones and Mrs. Rajan completed five tosses and earned a pajama day for the whole school. Students are very excited to wear their pajamas to school tomorrow. Tomorrow is our all-school assembly. We will be introducing a new "tool" for our toolbox. Next week in the blue notes, I will disclose our new tool.

We are looking forward to parent conferences this afternoon and evening to share your child's progress.
