

8th Annual Family Band Night

After a long four-year break, the return of the greatest annual concert put on by the middle and high school bands return on Wednesday, May 10! Family Band Night will begin at 7 PM in the Hull High School Gym with performances from the 6th grade band, the 7th and 8th grade band, the middle school jazz band and the high school jazz big band. This is a free concert for all of Hull's community. Doors open at 6:30PM. PLUS there will be a raffle for a $100 Gift Certificate to The Face Place and Spa. This spa is one of Hanover's finest and is owned by Louise Alibrandi, proud grandma of two of the high school band musicians. Raffle tickets are $10 each and all monies collected will be donated back to the bands of the Hull Music Department. Thank you all in advance for your support of the Hull Public School music program.
